
Scavullo: Photographs, 50 Years, is the definitive retrospective book on one of the world's greatest living fashion and portrait photographers. For half a century Francesco Scavullo's name has been synonymous with beauty and glamour. His photographs have graced the covers and inside pages of Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Cosmopolitan, and other fashion magazines worldwide, as well as Time and Newsweek. Portraits of the world's most beautiful women -- Sophia Loren, Catherine Deneuve, Isabella Rossellini, Elizabeth Taylor -- appear throughout this stunning book. And of course there are the models, from Veruschka to Iman to Claudia Schiffer, who are made forever more beautiful by Scavullo. Scavullo has also photographed Sting, Mick Jagger, and Mikhail Baryshnikov; Barbra Streisand, Julie Andrews, and Diana Ross; writers Truman Capote and Edward Albee; designers Karl Lagerfeld, Calvin Klein, and Pauline Trigere; Andy Warhol, Muhammad Ali, and scores of other legendary actors, artists, and entertainers. Special sections on Brooke Shields (first photographed by Scavullo at age seven months for an Ivory soap ad), Madonna, Lauren Hutton, Janis Joplin, and other intriguing figures demonstrate the range and depth of Scavullo's masterful work.
